The area offers a mix of cinemas, theatres, restaurants, art galleries and seasonal events that enhance the reputation of the area, demonstrating a clear commitment to promote the economy and cultural contribution of its Citizens and Businesses to the vibrant City Centre.

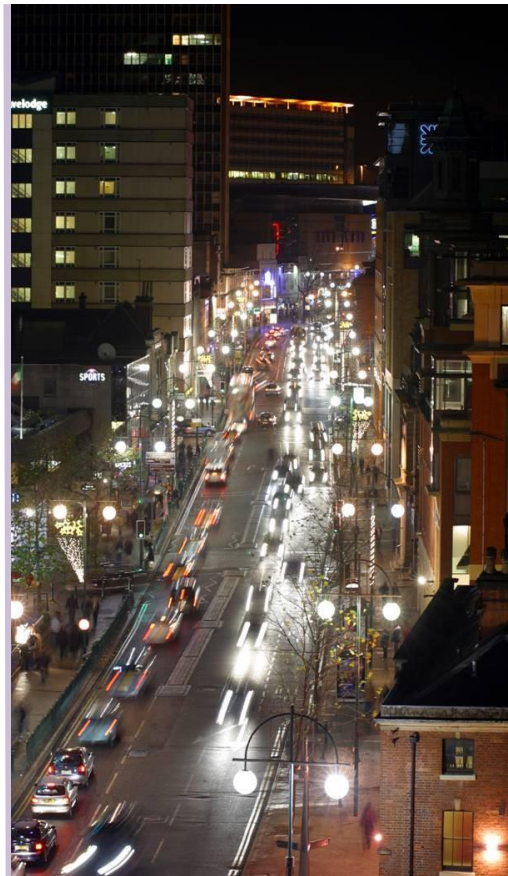

The two principal entertainment areas; Broad Street and Southside offer a diverse and vibrant nightlife and is home to the city's Chinese Quarter and Gay Village. The area is also home to one of the busiest evening entertainment areas in the Country, offering a large variety of venues to cater for all tastes and ages. The area regularly attracts over 70,000 visitors on a Friday/Saturday evening. There is a diverse range of activities and facilities in the area that support a thriving day time and night time economy.

The Retail Area is now recognised as offering one of the best shopping experiences in the UK, with over 1,000 retailers trading in the area and over 6.7 million visitors to the area each month.

The city has one of the strongest and most stable city centre partnerships in the country, comprising of Birmingham City Centre Partnership and Birmingham City Council, West Midlands Police, Safer Birmingham Partnership and the Safer City Centre Forum. The Partnership also includes the four Business Improvement Districts that were developed by the City Centre Partnership: Broad Street, Colmore Business District, Retail Birmingham and Southside.

The Assessors and Panel were impressed by particular strengths, including:

- The strength of the four BIDs, creating a healthy element of competition in the centre as well as joint working between BID areas. Clear signs of close multi sector working in enforcement and a positive communication between the trade and authorities.
- The uniformed presence on the streets that includes: Police, Street Wardens, Door Supervisors, Taxi Marshals and recently introduced to Broad Street: Street Pastors.
- The excellent lighting and street design proposals through the Interconnect Scheme.
- The long term commitment to the city centre which started over 20 years ago and continues to improve today.
